AFTER SHOOTING VAIRD, THE ROBBER EXITED THE BANK'S FRONT DOOR WHERE A GUNFIGHT ENSUED BETWEEN THE ROBBER AND ANOTHER RESPONDING OFFICER. NO INJURIES WERE SUFFERED BY EITHER PARTY AND THE ROBBER ENTERED A WAITING VAN DRIVEN BY ANOTHER BLACK MALE. THE VAN DEPARTED THE AREA AND WAS LATER RECOVERED UNOCCUPIED.

A THIRD BLACK MALE WHO HAD BEEN IN THE BANK DID NOT FIRE HIS WEAPON. HE EXITED THE BANK BY A REAR DOOR AND FLED ON FOOT - NOT WITH THE OTHER TWO UNSUBS.

following:
1. That I am a Special Agent (SA) with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and have been employed as an agent for 33 years.
2. That this affidavit is made in support of a criminal complaint and an application for an arrest warrant for PETER LANGAN, aka PEDRO GOMEZ, and for RICHARD LEE GUTHRIE, in connection with an investigation by the FBI for alleged violations of Title
18, United States Code, Section 1073, Unlawful Flight to Avoid	• Prosecution.
3. That on January 3, 1996, SA of the FBI,	ъ6 ъ7с assigned to the Resident Agency in Athens, Georgia, advised me of the following facts:
(a) On January 2, 1996, SA was informed by	.b6 b7C
Investigator Franklin County Sheriff's Office, Carnesville, Georgia, that PETER LANGAN, aka PEDRO GOMEZ, was charged with armed robbery, a state felony, on November 9, 1992.
RICHARD LEE GUTHRIE was charged on October 27, 1992, with committing the same armed robbery. Investigator informed SA that his investigation has determined that LANGAN and GUTHRIE have traveled out of the State of Georgia and are presently traveling from one state to another.

(b) The Franklin County Sheriff's Office informed SA that LANGAN was arrested in Ohio on the original warrant, waived extradition to Georgia, agreed to cooperate with the U.S. Secret Service, and later absconded. A bench warrant was subsequently issued for LANGAN's arrest when he failed to appear for arraignment on the November 9, 1992, warrant. warrant was issued on April 20, 1994, by Judge George H. Bryant, Franklin County, Georgia Superior Court. GUTHRIE has not been arrested on the original state warrant.

- provided SA with certified (c) Investigator [copies of the above-described felony warrants issued by Franklin County on October 27, 1992, and on November 9, 1992, and the bench warrant issued for LANGAN by Judge George H. Bryant, Franklin County, Georgia, Superior Court on April 20, 1994.
- (d) On January 2, 1996, District Attorney Lindsey A. Tise, Northern Judicial Circuit of Georgia, informed SA that efforts to locate LANGAN and GUTHRIE in the State of Georgia have been unsuccessful. District Attorney Tise advised that it is his understanding that PETER LANGAN, aka PEDRO GOMEZ, and RICHARD LEE GUTHRIE fled the State of Georgia and are presently somewhere in the midwestern part of the United States or New York State. District Attorney Tise further stated by letter that he would

Suspect arrested in shootout

Man linked to robberies across Midwest

By Brent Latenda Dispatch Police Reporter .

FBI agents might have gotten the last laugh yesterday when they arrested a man on the South Side, who, sources said, is suspected of a string of 18 bank robberies throughout the Midwest, including an October 1994 holdup in Columbus.

Two robbers who call themselves the "Midwestern Bank Bandits" began taunting Federal Bureau of Investigation agents last year when they started to buy getaway cars in the names of retired FBI agents; sent letters to newspapers poking fun at agents; and wore shirts with FBI and federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms logos during at least two robberies.

Peter K. Langan, 37, whose permanent address is not known, was shot in the back and face about 9:45 a.m. when law enforcement officials attempted to arrest him as he prepared to leave 585 Reinhard Ave.

Afterward, the Columbus Division of Fire's bomb squad spent several hours inside the house, where they found several explosives. Seven pipe bombs, four grenades and other bomb-making materials were found early in the search. Bomb squad members were at the ■ Georgia case may be a key to solving robberies / 6B house through the evening and were expected to return today. Several neighbors were evacuated.

Langan was wanted on a federal warrant, issued in Georgia, for unlawful flight to avoid prosecution, but several law enforcement sources said that Langan and another man, Richard Lee Guthrie, are believed to be the Midwestern Bank Bandita. . .

Guthrie, 37, was arrested recently in Cincinnati and is being held in the Hamilton County jail on federal charges from Georgia and West FBI agent Ed Boldt would not say whether Langan and Guthrie are suspects in the bank robberies, adding that "no one has been charged with the so-called Midwestern bank robberies." Boldt refused to comment when asked whether any suspects in the heists were in custody.

But several law enforcement sources, who did not want to be identified, confirmed that Langan is wanted in connection with the robberies, and that FBI agents had filed the unlawful flight warrant so they could arrest Langan and question him about the heists.

At a hearing in U.S. District Court yesterday afternoon on the unlawful flight charge, Langan de-50 nied taking part in the bank jobs. 44 son caught up in the tyrannical legal system," he told reporters. "Power to the people; up with the revolution."

Langan said he was a founder of the "Aryan Republican Army," which aims to overthrow the government and "set free the oppressed people of North America." He said he wants to be referred to as "Commander Pedro."

The unlawful flight warrant stemmed from an October 1992 robbery of a Pizza Hut in Lavonia, Ga. Guthrie also is suspected of participating in the robbery, Lavonia police said.

Langan is expected to be charged today with assault on a federal officer and possibly other charges related to the shootout, Boldt said.

The Midwestern Bank Bandits began hitting in January 1994 and have struck banks in Ohio, Iowa, Wisconsin, Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas and Kentucky.

The gang is suspected of one Columbus robbery: the Oct. 25, 1894, holdup of the Columbus National Bank at 6121 E. Livingston Ave. A lunch box containing a pipe bomb and a Twinkie was left behind by the robbers, who were dressed in construction hats. The 18 robberies have netted the pair an estimated $250,000, according to news reports.

The robbers have developed a distinctive mode of operation: They arrive in town several days before the robbery and purchase a junk car to be used in the getaway; they dress in disguises, such as construction workers or FBI agents; and they leave behind a bomb or fake explosive at the bank or in the getaway car to delay law enforcement officials.

The robbers angered FBI agents in December when they sent letters to several Midwestern newspapers, including papers in Cleveland; St. Louis; Des Moines, Iowa; and Milwaukee.

In one letter, the robbers nominated FBI agent Jim Nelson, based in St. Louis, for a community service award and appointed him as the robbers' "new spokesman for 1998." Another letter called Larry Holmquist, an agent based in Omaha, Neb., a "loudmouth."

Nobody has been injured in the robberies, but investigators said the robbers got braver and more arrogant as the robberies continued.

"Eventually, one of the bombs will go off, somebody will get shot or somebody will get hurt," FBI agent Douglass Ogden told The Dispatch last year.

Langan was arrested when he got into a shootout with members of the FBI Safe Streets Task Force made up of federal agents, Franklin County sheriff's deputies and Columbus police officers.

Task force members had been staking out the Reinhard Avenue address and tried to arrest Langan when he came out the back door and got into a white van. Agents were hesitant to raid the house because of the explosives, sources said.

Langan fired at task force members when they approached the van and announced that Langan was under arrest, Boldt said. Langan was believed to have fired several

Up to seven task force members returned fire, striking Langan in the back and face. He was treated at Grant Medical Center for minor injuries and was being held last night in the Franklin County jail.

No officers were hit.

Investigators found 47 spent shells in the area of the shooting, and Langan's van had at least 30 bullet holes in it. Investigators also found a .22-caliber automatic pistol outside the van and a .380-caliber automatic inside.

Police and neighbors said Langan had frequented the Reinhard Avenue duplex for about three months.

Marcia Hall, 32, lives upstairs in the duplex with her three children. She said she thought the two men who occasionally stayed downstairs were police officers because they once flashed badges at her and her 10-year-old son Jeffrey.

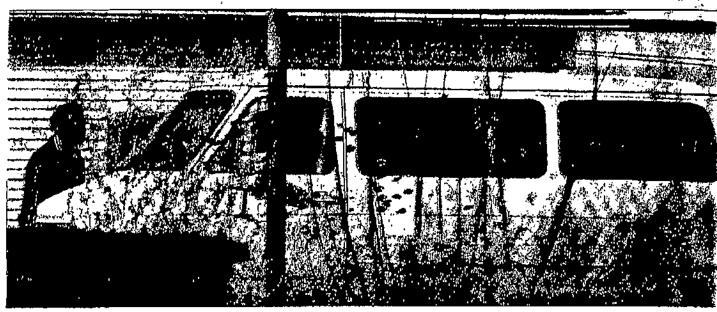

"They were real quiet guys, and they stayed to themselves," Hall said. "But if they were making bombs in there, that's dangerous."

Hall said the two men would stop by the house once a week or so. Yesterday, she awoke to counds of ountire.

"I looked out the window and there was a guy with a machine gun pointing at me," she said. "He told me to get away from the window. It was scary as hell."

Dispatch reporters Robert Ruth and Jodi Nirode contributed to this story.

By Jim Woods Dispatch Staff Reporter

Police Chief Jimmy Bennett's desire to solve an armed robbery of his village's Pizza Hut may be a key in the FBI's investigation of 18 Midwest bank robberies.

The Oct. 11, 1992, robbery in Lavonia, Ga., a village of 1,800 about 85 miles north of Atlanta, may have been a prelude to bigger jobs pulled by Peter K. Langan and Richard Lee Guthrie.

Bennett said the FBI told him that Langan and Guthrie are wanted in a series of bank robberies. Bennett said the FBI did not give him any details.

The FBI is being tight-lipped about what they believe Langan and Guthrie's connections are to the 18 unsolved Midwest bank robberies, including the Oct. 25, 1994, robbery of the Columbus National Bank at 6121 E. Livingston Ave.

Langan, 37, was captured yesterday after a shootcut with a team of FBI agents, Columbus police and Franklin County deputy sheriffs outside 585 Reinhard St. on the South Side.

Guthrie, 37, was arrested in the Cincinnati area last weekend. He is scheduled to appear today before U.S. Magistrate Lynn Hooe Jr. in Cincinnati.

The New York Times in April reported that the FBI was investigating possible connections between the unsolved Midwest robberies and the Oklahoma City bombing. It was thought the robberies were financing far right-wing activities.

In addition to Cohembus, bank robberies be-lieved connected to the spree occurred June 8, 1994, in Springdale, a Cincinnati suburb, and Dec. 9, 1994 in Middleburg Heights, a Cleveland suburb.

The first robbery occurred Jan. 25, 1994, in Ames, Iowa, and the last reported one occurred Aug. 30, 1995, in Madison, Wis.

In all the heists, the bank robbers used disguises and explosive devices.

Two men, were involved in the Columbus robbery, and the bomb squad was called to disarm a bomb in a lunch box left behind.

Lisa Copley, the Columbus National Bank's assistant manager, said the bank has not been contacted about any developments in the case. She has memories about what happened.

"It was very dramatic, not a pleasant situation," Copley said.

Langan and Guthrie have not been charged with any of the bank robberies.

They face federal charges of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution stemming from Georgia armed-robbery charges in the Pizza Hut robbery. Guthrie also faces a federal charge in West Virginia. He is accused of using a false birth certificate and holding false drivers licenses out of Kansas, Montana and Virginia, a Cincinnati U.S. District Court spokesmen;

It is a common practice for the FBI to arrest suspects on warrants from old cases before filing new charges. Agent Ed Walker of the FBI office in Athens, Ga., said the fugitive warrants for Langan and Guthrie were filed Jan. 4.

Bennett said Langan and Guthrie became suspects in the Pizza Hut robbery through information from informants. Langan and Guthrie were renting a trailer near Lavonia at the time of the robbery.

Guthrie wore a mask when he pulled a gun on a clerk at the Pizza Hut while Langan was outside in the getaway car, Bennett said.
"They got away with a considerable amount of money," Bennett said.

Suspect says he was assassination target

By Robert Ruth Dispasch Staff Reporter

A man wounded in a shootout with law enforcement authorities yesterday said they had sought to assassinate him.

Peter K. Langan said he is an organizer of a group that seeks to overthrow the government.

Law enforcement authorities believe Langan is one of two robbers who hit 18 banks across the Midwest during the last two years.

Wearing handcuffs and leg irons, Langan, 37, was escorted into a U.S. Courthouse hearing room by six deputy marshals and other law enforcement officers after he was arrested on the South Side. He spoke briefly to reporters while waiting for a court hearing to begin.

The shootout was an attempt by federal authorities to assassinate him "because I know too much" about CIA secrets, Langan said.

Langan's shoulder-length red hair was tied in back with a white cloth. He were blue prison garb and sandals. Langan's left eye was bandaged, the result of a shotgun wound. He also said he had been slightly wounded in the back.

"I didn't fire a shot today," he declared.

An FBI agent said Langan opened fire when city, county and federal officers came up to Langan's vehicle to arrest him.

Asked by a reporter about accusations that he is a member of an armed gang that has pulled robberies throughout the Midwest, Lengan said, "I don't know anything about a gang. I'm not going to confess to any crime"

Langan was arrested on a federal charge of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution. The federal charge, filed in Macon, Ga., on Jan. 4, stemmed from a 1992 Georgia armed robbery charge. The state charge accuses Langan of robbing an employee of a Pizza Hut in Lavonia, Ga., of $2,765 on Oct. 11, 1992.

During the hearing, U.S. Magistrate Judge Terence P. Kemp informed Langan that the unlawful flight charge carries a maximum penalty of five years in prison.

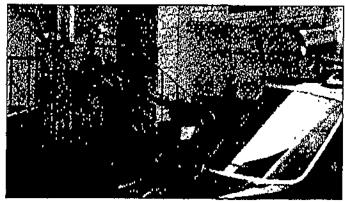

Assistant U.S. Aftorney Kevin W. Kelley told Kemp that the government expects today to charge Langan with additional federal charges stemming from the shootout. U.S. Attorney Edmund A. Sargus Jr. said those charges will include assault on a federal officer and using a gun in a violent crime.

Kemp told Langan that he will continue to be held without bail. A court-appointed attorney will represent Langan in future hearings.

Langan complained to Kemp that he had not received adequate medical attention for his wounds. Authorities also refused to give him water, Langan told Kemp. "I don't know if this is coercion,"

"I don't know if this is coercion," he said. He also is a bit hazy about details of the shootout, Langan told Kamp. "I don't know exactly what happened to me. It's kind of a blur."

Kemp said he is confident that Langan will receive humane treatment while in custody.

Midway Auto Sales in turn sold the vehicle on 04/17/1995, to William R. Stevens, who used the address 220 Cherokee, #2B, Sallisaw, Oklahoma 74956. The vehicle appears to have bene sold by for $3,600. It should be noted that the date of the sale occurred after the 03/29/1995, bank robbery that occurred in West Des Moines, Iowa. A Federal grand jury in Des Moines returned a three-count indictment against Stedeford for conspiracy to commit robbery, bank robbery, and use of a firearm or explosives in the bank robbery on 03/29/1995. The next bank robbery committed by the BOMBROB subjects was in May 1995. It

Details: On 07/02/1996 subject Guthrie was shown numerous items of false identification which he identified as those he had made in the past and provided to both Mark Thomas and Scott Stedeford.

For the information of Oklahoma City, Scott Anthony Stedeford, white male, DOB 6', 1801bs, Brown hair, Brown eyes, is being held without bond for pending bank robbery charges in Des Moines, IA, in connection with captioned matter.

Further, among the items Guthrie identified was an SSAN return card (with the original SSAN card removed) in the name of:

WILLIAM ROBERT STEVENS, 3318 S. Glenstone, No. 127, Springfield Mo.

Guthrie recalled that he had given this original document to Stedeford after receiving it from his, Guthrie's, mail drop. And, that Stedeford obtained an Oklahoma driver's license using the Stevens name and new SSAN.

A search of Oklahoma driver's licenses, and contact with the Oklahoma Department of Public Safety, located one possible drivers license, issued in April, 1995 (with a birth certificate shown as identification), in the name of:

WILL:	IAM ROBERT	STEVENS,	male	white,	DOB [SSAN
(D/L number)		5'11"	, 185	, Brown	eyes	, 220	W.	Cherokee

Will, as expeditiously as possible, conduct appropriate investigation regarding William Robert Stevens, 220 W Cherokee St, #2B, Sallisaw, OK, and determine if Stevens is a legitimate person. If this Stevens does exist, discontinue investigation and advise.

Will, if Stevens appears to be a fictitious identification, conduct appropriate investigation to document that the identity, address, etc., are false, and provide copies

PRISONER HANGS SELF: A man who pleaded guilty last week on bank robbery charges hanged himself in the Kenton County Jail today. Richard Lee Guthrie, whose last known address was Ocean City, Md., was found about 6 a.m. He had left two suicide notes, one to his attorney and one to his brother, said Allen Smith, a U.S. marshal in Columbus. Smith said Guthrie used something in his cell to hang himself, but wouldn't identify the item. He had pleaded guilty to robbing 14 banks in seven states. Police believe he was a member of a gang that was involved in bank robberies in Ohio, Iowa, Wisconsin, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and Kentucky.

ARMED AND DANGEROUS

Synopsis:

Request laboratory comparison between all evidence submitted under captioned Seattle cases with that submitted by any division in the BOMBROB matter.

Details:

As receiving offices previously have been advised, the captioned Seattle cases involve incidents on two different dates in Spokane, WA. On 4/1/96 subjects planted a pipe bomb at a local newspaper known for its politically liberal orientation. A few minutes later subjects robbed a US Bank branch and detonated another pipe bomb at the bank. On 7/12/96 subjects detonated a pipe bomb at a Planned Parenthood office and then proceeded to rob the same bank. They did not detonate a bomb at the bank during the second robbery. Nearly identical stolen vans were used in both robberies, and the subjects attempted to burn the vans with an incendiary device after each incident.

Details: For the information of the Laboratory, between 11/27/1992 and 12/19/1995, the subjects involved in this case were involved in 22 bank robberies in the Midwest. In carrying out their criminal activities, subjects obtained Social Security cards by displaying false birth records for young children. After obtaining a Social Security Number, subjects were then able to obtain drivers licenses under these fictitious names. Subjects would then utilize their new identities to rent hotel rooms, mailboxes, storage facilities, etc., as well to purchase vehicles used as getaway cars.

On 05/24/1996, a search was conducted of the residence of subject Scott Anthony Stedeford at 1213 Octagon Road, Camden, NJ, in which the enclosed identification documents were located. Investigation has determined these items were furnished to him from various individuals including subject Mark Thomas, the selfproclaimed head of the Christian Identity Church and Ayran Nation in Eastern Pennsylvania.

Re: 91A-OM-41859, 08/07/1996

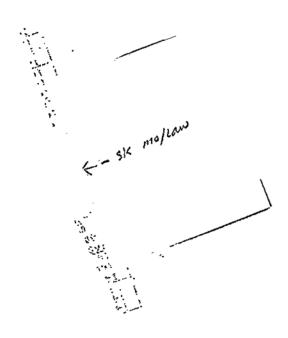

Details: Newark Division seized a 1983 Chevrolet Suburban, VIN Number 1G8EC16H2DF124428, from Gabe's Towing Company, 1408 S. Stiles Street, Linden, New Jersey, on July 24, 1996. The vehicle is currently in the custody of FBI Newark and will be maintained until such time as the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, AUSA advises to the contrary. The vehicle was seized pursuant to a warrant issued on July 24, 1996; however, the ERT Team from Newark was not able to search the interior at that time due to obligations relating to the investigation of TWA Flight 800 in New York.

A second warrant was obtained on August 6, 1996 to search the interior since the ten days had elapsed to execute the search of the interior of the vehicle using the first warrant obtained on July 24, 1996. The second warrant was executed on August 7, 1996 by ERT personnel and a subsequent communication has been sent regarding the evidence seized from that warrant.

In addition, this communication provides a cover for sending the FD-302 which relates to the same search.

A copy of the TDK SA100 cassette tape found inside the Chevrolet Suburban was sent Federal Express on August 12, 1996 to AUSA United States Attorney's Office. Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and to SA Philadelphia Division. The only information recorded on the cassette was music.

Ex-Elohim City resident testifies: Gang wanted to overthrow gov

By Donna Hales and Kristi Fry

Phoenix Staff Writers

A former Elohim City resident testified this week in Ohib that he was involved in six bank robberies in 1994 and 1995 as a member of the Aryan Republi-4 can Army.

Kevin McCarthy, 19, testified in federal court in Columbus in pretrial hearings for Peter Commander Pedro" Langan, suspected of planning about 20 bank robberies in 1994 and 1995.

The goal of Langan's gang was "to open the door to the overthrow of the United States government," McCarthy testified Monday.

McCarthy testified he was introduced to Langan by the same person who first took him to Elohim City - Mark Thomas, 44, a white suprema-Langari, 38, is suspected of planning about 20 bank robberies in Ohio, Iowa, Wisconsin, Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas and Kentucky in 1994 and 1995.

Kevin McCarthy, 19, a former resident of Elohim City in Adair County, agreed to plead guilty to one count each of bank robbery, conspiracy and illegal use of firearms. The agreement requires him to testify about the activities of other gang members, including Langan.

cist from Allentown, Pa. McCarthy said he joined Langan's gang in late 1994 after a meeting in a restaurant in Van Buren, Ark.

McCarthy moved to Elohim City when he was 16, said the community's spiritual leader, the Rev. Robert Millar. The semi-cloistered group usually consists of between 85 and 100 people living on about 400 acres in Adair County, near the Arkansas border and close to Van Buren.

Elohim City was the focus of intense scrutiny by federal officials after it was learned that Timothy McVeigh, charged in the April 19, 1995, bombing of a federal building in Oklahoma City, had made phone calls to Elohim City before the bomb-

Thomas, a self-proclaimed Aryan Nation leader, brought McCarthy to Elohim City, saying the boy wanted an education, Millar said.

... One other alleged member of the gang had been in Elohim City. Steve Stedeford, 27, a friend of McCarthy's, visited. Elohim City twice for four days' to a week. Millar said.

Millar said he was not aware . that McCarthy met with Langan and others in Van Buren.

"I don't know who's coming or gone to town or stayed home,"

"He (Kevin McCarthy) was just a nice, quiet boy - nothing rebellious about him. Very quiet and old for his age. He was 19, but he acted like he ... was 40 years old."

- The Rev. Robert Millar

Millar said.

And he said he does not know Langan or Richard Lee Guthrie, 38, who pleaded guilty earlier ... this year to 19 robberies and had agreed to testify against Langan and other gang members. Guthrie was found hanged in his jail cell last month, an apparent suicide.

Phoenix reporters McCarthy at Elohim City in April 1995, shortly after the Oklahoma City bombing.

One Elchim City resident whose home McCarthy lived in said he came and went several times in the past year. He left the last time with Stedeford. said the resident, who asked not to be identified. .

McCarthy was arrested May 24, 1996, in Philadelphia.

Millar said McCarthy left on good terms with community residents.

"He was just a nice, quiet boy - nothing rebellious about him," Millar said. "Very quiet and old for his age. He was 19, but he acted like he was 40 years old.

"He was an industrious boy. Give him any job and he'd put his shoulder to the wheel. He was helpful, courteous; responsible."

Millar said he couldn't imagine him robbing a bank but could see him maybe marching in a Klan rally. ...

"That's the type of thing that would appeal to him. He'd like the idea of marching - black shirts or brown shirts, whatev-McCarthy testified that each gang member got an equal share of the bank robbery monev, with some spent on expenses and some saved "to do other.

· He did not elaborate; but The Columbus Dispatch reported. Tuesday that authorities are. investigating allegations that the gang had links to domestic terrorist organizations.

McCarthy "seemed to be always" broke. We had to help him out." . If the FBI has a valid reason: to believe any of the money gained in the robberies is stashed at Elohim City, "they can search all they want to and they wouldn't have to have a search warrant," Millar said. "I would want-to be very watchful: that we weren't framed in the process."

Other Elohim City residents said visitors - some militants

- come and go at Elohim City, but that doesn't mean the community supports their causes.

Robert Millar's son, John, said, "Just because people have been here and stayed here and a lot of times they will be going in directions that we oppose — we try to be moderate to them when they oppose the leadership here."

He said as far as the Millars know, no one participated in any illegal actions while they were staying at Elohim City "unless they did it behind our backs."

Zarah Patterson, one of the leaders at Elohim City, said some militants have come to the community trying to promote their agenda by using Robert Millar as a public figure.

"They come to us wanting our support. And if we don't feel a oneness with them in philosophy or religious beliefs, it just Millar said Tuesday that doesn't work out We're not quick to push them out ... all we. want to do is try to help them." Maybe we feel they are a little bit out of balance."

Elohim City residents don't advocate the violent overthrow of the government Patterson said. "If something's got rot in it, if something's wrong with the system, it's not going to stand anyway, and we don't have to do anything to push it over or to hasten that along," Patterson said .. there is a district as the best

Details: For information of Little Rock and Oklahoma City, on 08/07 and 08/1996, a search warrant was executed by FBI New Jersey on a 1983 white Chevrolet Suburban with vehicle identification number (VIN) 1G8EC16H2DF124428. This vehicle had been abandoned by subject Scott Anthony Stedeford once he learned his co-conspirators Richard Lee Guthrie and Peter Kevin Langan had been arrested by FBI Agents out of the Cincinnati Division.

According to

A check with the Iowa Department of Transportation under VIN 1G8EC16H2DF124428 reflected this vehicle to be a 1983 Chevrolet Suburban, white in color, owned by William A. Stevens and Sound Investment Company, 300 West Thomas Road, Shenandoah, Iowa. The previous owner is listed as appears as though the bank robbery loot taken from the 03/29/1995, bank robbery was used to purchase the white Suburban.

The Iowa Certificate of Title was issued on 04/21/1995. The reverse of the Arkansas Certificate of Title used to register the vehicle in Iowa reflects that sold the vehicle on 03/24/1995, to Midway Auto Sales, Fort Smith, Arkansas. Midway Auto Sales in turn sol \bar{d} the vehicle on 04/17/1995, to William R. Stevens, who used the address 220 Cherokee, #2B, Sallisaw, Oklahoma 74956. The vehicle appears to have bene sold by It should be noted that the date of the sale occurred after the 03/29/1995, bank robbery that occurred in West Des Moines, Iowa. A Federal grand jury in Des Moines returned a three-count indictment against Stedeford for conspiracy to commit robbery, bank robbery, and use of a firearm or explosives in the bank robbery on 03/29/1995. The next bank robbery committed by the BOMBROB subjects was in May 1995.

- 3. Copy of a letter written by Scott Stedeford from the Polk County Jail in Des Moines, Iowa, to Kevin McCarthy

Details: For information of receiving offices, Scott Anthony Stedeford was indicted by the Federal grand jury in Des Moines, Iowa, for violation of Title 18, U.S. Code (USC), Section 371, Conspiracy to Commit Bank Robbery; Title 18, USC, Section 2113, Bank Robbery; and Title 18, USC, Section 924, Use of a Firearm/Explosives in Relation to Bank Robbery. Stedeford was involved with four other individuals in the robbery of 22 banks throughout the midwest area of the United States from November 1992 until December 1995. While committing the bank robberies, the BOMBROB subjects, identified as Richard Lee Guthrie, Peter Kevin Langan, Kevin McCarthy, Michael Brescia, and Scott Stedeford, maintained a safe house in Pittsburg, Kansas. Prior to the arrest of Guthrie and Langan in mid-January 1996, the safe house was moved from Pittsburg, Kansas, to 585 Reinhard Road in Columbus, Ohio.

Subsequent to the arrest of Guthrie and Langan, a search was executed at the Columbus safe house. Found was a note to a regarding rent for the residence, signed by a According to

On 08/19/1996, AUSAs from the U.S. Attorney's Office in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, traveled to Des Moines, Iowa, in an attempt to negotiate a plea from Scott Stedeford. Stedeford noted that he needed the evening to pray about his decision and would have an answer the following

On 08/20/1996, Stedeford met with the AUSAs, FBI, and Stedeford's defense counsel. Stedeford delayed his decision again until Monday, 08/26/1996. In addition, he refused to provide any information pursuant to a proffer letter. It appears Stedeford is unwilling to plea and cooperate with law enforcement authorities. As a result, handwriting exemplars were obtained from Stedeford to be used for comparison with the note left with the landlord in Columbus, Ohio.

According to the U.S. Attorney's Office in Des Moines, Iowa, the trial United States of America versus Scott Anthony Stedeford will be continued until the first week of October 1996. Due to the conflict with Langan's trial in Columbus, Ohio, it appears as though the Stedeford trial will be continued until November 1996 once the Langan is completed. A tentative date has been set for the second week of September for all AUSAs and case agents to meet in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to discuss the future prosecution of Mark Thomas.

The trial United States of American versus Scott Anthony Stedeford is scheduled to begin sometime during the two-week period following 09/30/1996. Arrangements are currently underway between the U.S. Attorney's Office in the Southern District of Iowa and the U.S. Attorney's Office in the Southern District of Ohio to coordinate the availability of witnesses and evidence in the upcoming trials. Agents who participated in critical aspects of the case should be on notice that their testimony may be needed at Stedeford's trial in Des Moines, Iowa. The critical parts of the investigation would include the search of Richard Lee Guthrie's safe house in Columbus, Ohio; circumstances involved in the arrest of both Guthrie and Peter Kevin Langan; the arrest of Stedeford and the subsequent search of his residence; seizure and search of Stedeford's white Chevrolet Suburban; and any laboratory evaluations or analysis.

It is anticipated that within the next two weeks a final witness list will be prepared and those agents will be contacted.

It was determined that the questioned writing on specimens Q64 and Q65 were prepared by RICHARD LEE GUTHRIE, write of specimen K132.

Due to presence of characteristics, not explained on the basis of the available known writing, it could not be determined whether the questioned writing on specimen Q66 was prepared by the RICHARD LEE GUTHRIE, K132. However, characteristics were noted which indicate that GUTHRIE probably prepared the questioned writing on specimen Q66.

The submitted evidence is returned herewith to the Columbus Resident Agency. Photographs are retained.

Details: The above items were recovered from the White Chevrolet Van that subject PETER KEVIN LANGAN was in at the time of his arrest. These items were not submitted to the Laboratory with the original submission of evidence. These items were recovered at a later date inside one of the toolboxes.
It appears that the white funnel has a fine dusting of black residue from the presence of smokeless or black powder. It is requested that this item be examined by the Chemistry Unit for the presence of any low explosive.
The Miscellaneous wires and electrical connectors were also recovered from inside a toolbox. These wires and connectors appear to be similar to components of the Improvised Explosive

Result of examination:

Due to the presence of characteristics not explained on the basis of the available known writing, no conclusion could be reached whether the questioned writing on specimen Q78 was prepared by SCOTT ANTHONY STEDEFORD, writer of specimens K161 and Kc162. However, significant characteristics were observed which indicate that STEDEFORD, K161 and Kc162 probably prepared the majority of questioned writing on specimen Q78.

The submitted specimens have been photographed and are returned herewith.

Title: RAPID START POST DEPLOYMENT REPORT MC 124, "BOMBROB"

Synopsis: The Cincinnati Division hosted a conference regarding BOMBROB; Mid-West Bank Robberies; MC-124; OO:Omaha, on February 13, 96, which included all involved FBI and U.S. Attorney's Offices. Cincinnati requested the presence of the Rapid Start Team (RST) to provide an overview of the team's capabilities, as well as providing automated support for the above mentioned case.

Details: Objectives

The Rapid Start Team (RST) deployed on February 13, 1996 to the Cincinnati office, and met with SSA and Computer Specialist to discuss the automation of this case. All documents generated previous to ACS and those documents received from outside sources were determined to be scanned into WordPerfect and then indexed in ZyIndex for full text retrieval. The documents, from each of the eight file numbers, loaded in ACS were downloaded into WordPerfect also to be indexed.

Results:
Acquisition of Control by Host: Training was provided to CS on all procedures involved in the scanning, clean-up, and retrieval of documents.
Any further training to the Cincinnati office would be provided by CS
Evaluation/Follow Up: To date the above procedures of indexing documents into ZyIndex for retrieval are still being preformed with no reported problems. SSAand CSwere both pleased with timely results of the RST deployment.

Details: Review of crisscross directories located no listing for telephone number (406) 256-2811, though did verify that area code 406 is for the state of Montana and 256 designates a Billings, Montana, zone. Pretext calls to this number went unanswered.
Department of Motor Vehicles, advised that telephone number (406) 256-2811 is assigned to the Appraisal and Assessment desk, however, no single individual is assigned to this desk or duty due to a recent personnel reduction. explained that the Appraisal and Assessment desk generally appraises the value of personal property such as mobile homes, mobile business offices, and similar equipment and estimates the value and road taxes due to move this equipment on the highways. Appraisal and Assessment issues no permits nor licenses nor does it do any testing, it simply provides estimates and appraisals.
also reviewed records of Montana's Department of Motor Vehicles for any driver's license, I.D. cards, vehicle registrations or records of requests for appraisal and assessment regarding Richard Lee Guthrie or Peter Kevin McGregor Langan, Synopsis: To open an investigation in the Philadelphia Division in order to prosecute members of a white separatist organization, known as the Aryan Republican Army which advocated the violent overthrow of the government of the United States and which supported itself through armed bank robberies.

Administrative: The Philadelphia Division has been conducting investigation into this matter as an auxiliary office under the title: BOMBROB; MIDWEST BANK ROBBERIES, MAJOR CASE #124; BR; 00:0M, under file #91A-OM-41859. During the course of the investigation, evidence was developed which the U.S. Attorney's Office in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania (EDPA), Philadelphia, PA, believes would lead to a successful prosecution of the subjects under the ITAR statute.

Details: During the course of investigation of 91A-OM-41859 case title previously mentioned above, evidence was developed which resulted in identifying Mark William Thomas, Peter Kevin Langan, Scott Anthony Stedeford, Kevin William McCarthy, Michael William Brescia, and Richard Lee Guthrie (deceased), as being responsible for the robberies of at least 22 banks in the states of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, and Wisconsin, between November, 1992 and December, 1995.

Investigation has further determined that members of the bank robbery gang were all associated with the Aryan Nation Movement and created an organization which they named the Aryan Republican Army.

The organization, in groups ranging in size from two to five, robbed banks throughout the Midwest. The group initially consisted of Richard Guthrie and Peter Langan. attempt to expand their "cell", they contacted Mark Thomas of Macungie, PA, a self-proclaimed minister of the Christian Identity Movement. Thomas subsequently recruited Kevin McCarthy and Scott Stedeford of Philadelphia, PA, and introduced them to Richard Guthrie and Peter Langan. McCarthy and Stedeford were subsequently involved in six and seven bank robberies respectively. Later Michael Brescia of Philadelphia, PA, was also recruited and robbed one bank in Madison, Wisconsin, on August 30, 1995.

Following several of the bank robberies, Mark Thomas received some of the proceeds from Scott Stedeford, Kevin McCarthy, and Richard Guthrie. Currently, three members of the organization are being prosecuted as a result of the BOMBROB investigation, which is outlined as follows:

Scott Anthony Stedeford who participated in seven bank robberies was found guilty of federal bank robbery charges in the Southern District of Iowa, DesMoines, Iowa, on November 18, 1996, and is awaiting sentencing.

Peter Kevin Langan who was involved in 18 bank robberies and is scheduled to be tried in Columbus, Ohio, on January 8, 1997, on federal bank robbery and AFO charges.

Kevin William McCarthy who was involved in six bank robberies, [on December 16, 1996, will plead in the EDPA, Philadelphia, PA, under Rule 20 proceedings to federal bank robbery charges instituted in the Eastern District of Missouri, St. Louis, Missouri.

Richard Lee Guthrie who was involved in 20 bank robberies committed suicide by hanging himself at the Kenton County Jail in Covington, Kentucky on July 12, 1996.

Mark William Thomas and Michael William Brescia have not, to date, been charged.

Between April and November, 1996, Assistant U.S. Attorneys (AUSAs) | EDPA, Philadelphia, PA, have reviewed the evidence in the BOMBROB case and believe a successful prosecution can be obtained as well as the evidence obtained from each of the various bank robberies which the organization was responsible.

On November 25, 1996, AUSA advised that he anticipated submitting evidence to a Federal Grand Jury sitting in the EDPA, Philadelphia, PA, over the next several months, in hopes of having a true bill returned against all the subjects by the time Peter Kevin Langan's trial is complete in Columbus, Ohio. anticipates charging the subjects with various violations which are as follows:

Administrative: Reference Philadelphia telcall of Special Agent (SA)

Resident Agency (FRA) SA on 12/06/1996. The Philadelphia Division has been conducting investigation into this matter as an Auxillary Office under the title BOMBROB; Mid-West Bank Robberies, Major Case Number 124; BR; OO:Omaha, File number 91A-OM-41859. During the course of the investigation evidence was developed in which the United States Attorney's Office in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania (EDPA), Philadelphia, PA, believes would lead to a successful prosecution of the subjects under the ITAR Statute. Philadelphia is currently investigating this case under File Number 166E-PH-80713.

Details: For the information of Richmond, during the course of the investigation of BOMBROB; Mid-West Bank Robberies, Major Case Number 124; evidence was developed which resulted in identifying Mark William Thomas, Peter Kevin Langin, Scott Anthony Stedeford, Kevin William McCarthy, Michael William Brescia, and Richard Lee Guthrie (Deceased), as being responsible for the robberies of at least 22 banks in the states of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, and Wisconsin, between 11/1992 and 12/1995.

Investigation further determined that members of the bank robbery gang were all associated with the Aryan Nation Movement and created an organization which they named the Aryan Republican Army.

The organization, in groups ranging in size from one (1) to five (5), robbed banks throughout the Mid-west. The group initially consisted of Richard Guthrie and Peter Langin. In an attempt to expand their "cell", they contacted Mark Thomas of Macungie, PA, a self-proclaimed Minister of the Christian Identity Movement. Thomas subsequently recruited Kevin McCarthy and Scott Stedeford of Philadelphia, PA., and introduced them to Richard Guthrie and Peter Langin. McCarthy and Stedeford were subsequently involved in six (6) and seven (7) bank robberies respectfully. Later, Michael Brescia of Philadelphia, PA was also recruited and robbed one (1) bank in Madison, Wisconsin on 08/30/1995.

Following several of the bank robberies, Mark Thomas received some of the proceeds from Scott Stedeford, Kevin McCarthy, and Richard Guthrie. Currently three (3) members of the organization are being prosecuted as follows as a result of the BOMBROB investigation which is outlined as follows:

Three Suspected Phineas Priests Charged In Spokane Bombings

Idaho Militants Linked to Prominent Identity Minister and Publication

Three men arrested in a series of bank robberies and bombings in Spokane, Wash., earlier this year are closely tied to white supremacist and Patriot organizations and are believed to be followers of an extremist ideology that espouses violence for religious purposes.

In October, FBI agents and state police arrested the suspects— Charles Harrison Barbee, 44, Robert Sherman Berry, 42, and Jay Merrell, 51, all of Sandpoint, Idaho— after an attempted bank robbery in Portland, Ore.

The three are accused of robbing the Spokane Valley branch of U.S. Bank and bombing a newspaper, The (Spokane) Spokesman-Review, in April. They are also charged with robbing the same bank in July and setting off a bomb at a nearby Planned Parenthood clinic.

Two men and a woman believed by authorities to be connected to the bank robbery cell remain at large. The robberies netted over $100,000, none of which has been recovered.

Authorities say the three men in custody are believed to be adherents of a religious credo that has been linked to a number of violent acts throughout the United States. Known as Phineas Priests, the followers of this ideology believe they are obliged to impose "God's law" on the earth — by violence if necessary. Interracial marriage, the banking system, homosexuality and abortion are contrary to "God's law," according to the belief system. Murder, armed robbery, bombing and counterfeiting are justified in the fight against these "evils."

The Phineas Priesthood is rooted in the racist theology of Christian Identity, a doctrine that considers whites the true children of God, Jews the spawn of Satan and all other people subhuman. The suspects in the Spokane case are ardent followers of Identity teachings. (See story, Page 4.)

Mark Thomas' Pennsylvania Compound Attracts Scores of Disaffected Youths

Aryan Nations Leader Teaches White Supremacy; Testimony Ties Him to Members of Underground Army

■ For years, observers of the white supremacist movement have warned about the dangers posed by Christian Identity leader Mark Thomas. They charged that his compound near Allentown, Penn., is a breeding ground for violence and hate.

Recent events have added fuel to their concerns.

Earlier this year, two of the men arrested in a string of bank robberies in the Midwest began cooperating with authorities. They told investigators they were members of the Aryan Republican Army, a group of rightwing revolutionaries who lived in underground cells, traveled from one safe house to another and used pipe bombs and sophisticated weapons to carry out their heists. During their crime spree, the robbers allegedly stole more than $250,000, none of which has been recovered.

Thomas was the mentor of one of these ARA members, Kevin McCarthy. Thomas let McCarthy live at his farm, taught him about the Christian Identity religion and arranged for him to stay at Elohim City, a compound in Oklahoma that has been a gathering spot for elements in the extremist underground. Thomas also introduced McCarthy to other members of the ARA, according to court testimony.

The second cooperating suspect, Richard Guthrie, also connected Thomas to ARA members and promised to name others who were part of this criminal underground. But before he could provide details, he was found hung in his cell in Kentucky, in what authorities ruled a suicide.

The testimony of these two accused robbers brought intense law enforcement scrutiny to Thomas and raised questions about his connections to the extremist movement. It was not the first time Thomas found himself in the middle of a criminal investigation. His rented farm is a refuge for many racist Skinheads, two of whom made national news in 1995 when they pleaded guilty to the brutal murders of their parents and younger brother. Both had attended gatherings at Thomas' compound.

Thomas has denied any involvement in the ARA and has not been charged with any crimes. During a weak moment last summer when his arrest appeared imminent, Thomas toyed briefly with abandoning the white supremacist movement. The defection never occurred. Thomas continues to lead his Christian Identity congregation and edit its newsletter, The Watchman.

FROM HIPPIE TO RACIST

Typically clad in work clothes, his hair and mustache styled in the manner of his idol Adolf Hitler. Thomas is a career racist who was little known outside the white supremacist movement until about three years ago. Inside the movement, however, the middle-aged Pennsylvania farmer and father of six is wellconnected. A list of his close associates reads like a roll call of white supremacist leaders: Arvan Nations founder Richard Butler, movement strategist Louis Beam, Posse Comitatus and Christian Identity adherent James Wickstrom and White Aryan Resistance leader Tom Metzger.

Thomas came to right-wing politics after dabbling for a time in the 1960s counterculture. By his own account, he traveled the country seeking truth and sampling cultures and religions different from his own. After years of wandering, he adopted the beliefs of Christian fundamentalism. But when he was introduced to the teachings of Christian Identity, he found a philosophical home.

Today, he is an ardent promoter of the Identity religion, but he still delights in talking about his hippie days. He is fond of telling a tale that dates to this period. Thomas claims he "spoke briefly" with Jim Morrison of the 1960s rock group, The Doors. The legendary rock star "didn't sav anything about rock and roll," Thomas says, implying their talk was on loftier subjects like the meaning of life. Morrison, who died under mysterious circumstances, was the only rock musician in the psychedelic era who "understood what was happening," Thomas wrote in his newsletter. At a recent public gathering, Thomas wore a T-shirt emblazoned with Morrison's face.

Even if the story is apocryphal, it is a cunning way of connecting with a younger generation. By telling the tale to an enthralled gathering of rebellious youths, Thomas appears hip. By talking about his free-spirited past, he lets his listeners know that he, too, was once misunderstood and rejected by his family.

Thomas lives with his 21-year-old wife, Wendy Watkins, and five of his six children on a 24-acre farm north of Philadelphia. He moved there five years ago after leaving what was then the nation's largest Klan group — the Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. Thomas had risen to the rank of state chaplain of the organization.

Like many white supremacists, Thomas has held simultaneous memberships in different organizations over the years. He has long been active in Aryan Nations and lived at the group's headquarters for a time. He was a featured speaker at Aryan Nations' annual gathering in 1990 but was asked to leave the Hayden Lake compound later that year for unknown reasons.

Mark Thomas preaches a doctrinaire Identity message at his church in Allentown, Penn. and teaches the racist religion to young people.

His longtime friend Beam, the "ambassador-at-large" for Aryan Nations, was instrumental in bringing Thomas back into the group. Today, Thomas is state director for Arvan Nations in Pennsylvania. He also heads his own group called the Christian Posse Comitatus Church, located on his compound near Allentown, Penn. Thomas reportedly maintains a large supply of weapons, including AK-47s, on the premises; activities there include firearms instruction and target practice. State police say they have been called to Thomas' property numerous times over the years to investigate gunfire at the rear of the property.

TROUBLED TEENAGERS

Thomas' property is a magnet for troubled teenagers. Every year, Thomas hosts an Octoberfest at the compound that features racist rock bands and draws Skinheads and Skinhead wannabes from throughout the state and region.

Thomas offers acceptance and understanding to these angry, impressionable, often violence-prone young people.

Though often called "pastor," Thomas doesn't consider himself a preacher. "I see myself as a teacher. And I don't teach hatred. I teach responsibility and the love of wisdom," Thomas said in a 1994 profile in Philadelphia magazine.

At his farm, Thomas schools Skinheads and other racists in that "wisdom" — the gospel of Christian Identity. When his eager pupils take a break from their Identity studies, they practice marksmanship on the farm's firing range. At other times, they study the doctrines of Swiss psychologist Carl Jung and the philosophy of Friedrich Nietzsche, all to the thundering strains of German composer (and Hitler favorite) Richard Wagner.

In 1995, a young woman who had fled from Thomas' compound testified about life there. Thomas' young male followers were easy prey, 18-year-old Emily Heinrichs told the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission. "They all have emotional problems. Teenagers are relatively insecure anyway. You need some way to make your-self feel better and Thomas gave them this," Heinrichs testified. For these young men, she said, Thomas is a "father figure."

Heinrichs was fortunate. Her parents' support and her inner strength allowed her to break away from Thomas' group. But some of the disaffected youths who hung out at Thomas' farm got into trouble. Case in point: Bryan and David Freeman. In 1995, the Skinhead brothers gave Thomas his first taste of national notoriety.

The Freeman boys lived with their parents and younger brother just a few miles from Thomas' farm. Their middle school principal described them as well-adjusted students "with a lot of academic ability." They "certainly weren't loners," he said.

Their lives changed irrevocably around the time they met their neighbor, Mark Thomas. In 1993 and 1994, the Freeman brothers, along with their cousin Nelson Birdwell III, attended gatherings at Thomas' farm that drew as many as 300 Neo-Nazi Skinheads, Aryan Nations members and militant Klansmen. The boys shaved their heads, acquired Nazi tattoos and began using alcohol and drugs.

Their horrified parents sought help for the boys, but it was too late. David called his mother a "race traitor" for not supporting his Skinhead beliefs and told her he was "going to enjoy killing" her. In February 1995, he and his brother, Bryan, carried out that threat. With their cousin Nelson looking on, the Freemans bludgeoned and stabbed their parents and 11-year-old brother to death.

Their connection to Thomas was revealed shortly after the savage murders were discovered. Thomas tried to dodge the issue, first by claiming he had never met the boys. Later, he said he may have met them, but he insisted that he never told them or anyone to kill their parents.

Thomas gave scores of newspaper and television interviews during the period, often taking the boys' side and sympathizing with their problems. Later, he spread unsubstantiated claims that their parents had sexually abused them. Eventually the brothers pleaded guilty and were sentenced to life in prison.

A MEETING AT THE WAFFLE HOUSE

By the time of the Freeman murders in early 1995, Thomas was already connected with elements in the Patriot movement's criminal underground, according to recent court testimony. But it would take the break-up of a notorious bank robbery ring and the arrest of his protégé before Thomas' involvement would be more fully revealed.

Former white supremacist Floyd Cochran has warned about the dangers posed by Thomas and the residents of his compound.

In January 1996, Peter K. Langan and Richard L. Guthrie Jr., both 37, were arrested in Columbus, Ohio, on charges that they had committed a string of 18 bank robberies in the Midwest. Langan and Guthrie were also charged with firearms and explosives violations. Both had been active in Aryan Nations since the 1980s. In 1995, they had attended the Aryan Nations World Congress in Hayden Lake, Idaho.

Federal prosecutors say the men were part of group responsible for robberies in seven states that began in January 1994. Law enforcement officials had dubbed them the Midwestern Bank Bandits; later they were identified as a faction of the Aryan Republican Army, a secret group dedicated to the overthrow of the federal government. Their connection to the radical white supremacist movement was revealed after authorities searched two storage units rented by the robbery suspects and found Aryan Nations literature and a copy of Hitler's Mein Kampf. Explosives, weapons, pipe bombs and bomb making manuals were also discovered.

While in custody, Guthrie began cooperating with authorities. In short order, two more suspects were arrested — Philadelphia Skinhead Kevin McCarthy, 18, and Scott Stedeford, 27, of Upper Darby, Penn. Guthrie told investigators that McCarthy and Stedeford were members of the ARA. Guthrie promised to name other members of an underground white supremacist network and agreed to testify against his three co-defendants.

In exchange for his testimony, Guthrie received a federal prison sentence limited to 30 years. But in mid-July, just nine days after pleading guilty to weapons and bank robbery charges, Guthrie was found hanging by a bed sheet from an air vent in his jail cell. Authorities found two notes: one to his brother, another to his court-appointed lawyer. His death was ruled suicide.

Meanwhile, McCarthy also began talking to prosecutors. In federal court testimony in Columbus, Ohio, the suspect provided details of ARA bank robberies and recounted his recruitment into the group.

In late 1994, McCarthy met with Langan, Guthrie and Stedeford at a Waffle House in Van Buren, Ark., and later at a motel, according to the young man's testimony. Stedeford was partly responsible for the introduction since he already knew Langan, but another matchmaker was also present at the restaurant. McCarthy identified him as a Christian Identity preacher from Pennsylvania — Mark Thomas.

"[Thomas] and Scott Stedeford had known Peter Langan prior to that and that was the first time I had met [him]. So I guess you could say that they both introduced me to him," McCarthy testified in response to questions from his attorney.

What was the purpose of this meeting with Langan? an assistant U.S. attorney asked McCarthy.

"So that he could get to know me in order for me to join his group," Mc-Carthy responded.

He provided additional details of the meeting in Van Buren later in his testimony: "[Langan] told me that he had 12 bank robberies under his belt ... when he told me that, he was explaining about what I was getting involved in and about the group."

Thomas had been drawn into the ARA case before McCarthy told his damning tale. Guthrie told the FBI before his death that Thomas had introduced him to Stedeford. And McCarthy's arrest had focused attention on Thomas because of their past relationship. The young Skinhead was one of the troubled teenagers who had found refuge on the compound in Pennsylvania. Thomas introduced the young man, then a member of the Eastern Hammerskins, to the teachings of Christian Identity.

Thomas himself has admitted in newspaper stories that he brought Mc-Carthy to Elohim City, a Christian Identity enclave in eastern Oklahoma. Thomas says he took him there to further his education and, more specifically, because the local high school wouldn't admit him, fearing he was a Skinhead.

Thomas has tried to undermine the credibility of the ARA members now turned federal witnesses. After Guthrie's death, prosecutors had to cast about for a new "false-witness," Thomas wrote recently in his newsletter. He placed McCarthy in that position: "Before they turned him (McCarthy), I visited Kevin in jail and he said that they wanted me real bad."

McCarthy's arrest and subsequent testimony have drawn police and media attention to Thomas' activities once again. Federal agents swarmed all over Thomas' farm after the revelations. He acknowledged in his most recent newsletter that he had talked with the FBI.

As law enforcement bore down on him, Thomas prepared for the worst. He concluded his August newsletter with a plea for financial support. "If I fall, remember my family and, most of all, the future of all our children."

"A COLONY OF BIGOTS"

Thomas has not been charged as a result of McCarthy's testimony. But the role the Identity minister played in introducing his former student to ARA members once again raised fears about his effect on the young people who hang out at his farm.

Floyd Cochran, a longtime acquaintance of Mark Thomas, is not surprised by the recent turn of events. For years he has been Thomas' greatest nemesis, calling his Pennsylvania compound "a colony of bigots."

Until the summer of 1992, Cochran and Thomas were colleagues in the organized hate movement. They were upand-coming Aryan Nations leaders and lived at the Neo-Nazi group's compound in Idaho. Since his 1992 defection from Aryan Nations and his repudiation of white supremacy, Cochran is now a regular on the anti-racist speaking circuit. He has warned about Thomas and the dangers he believes are associated with his establishment of the compound in Pennsylvania.

For the last four years, Cochran has told audiences that Thomas' Pennsylvania farm would become a gathering spot — like Aryan Nations' headquarters in Idaho - for committed hardcore racists from all over the state, the region and the nation. Cochran warned that trouble would follow as surely as it had when Aryan Nations moved its headquarters into the northern Idaho woods two decades ago. Cochran, who publishes a newsletter on racist activity called Education and Vigilance, says he believes Thomas is the main danger among racist leaders in Pennsylvania.

"Most people I talked to four years ago just laughed and said Mark was small potatoes, no big deal, in the white supremacist movement," says Cochran. "They aren't laughing anymore."

He Now Trains Others to Stay Out of Harm's Way; The Importance of Planning

■ For over 20 years, David Estenson investigated bombings for the Minneapolis Police Department, but his most famous case occurred hundreds of miles to the south, in the Ozark Mountains of northern Arkansas.

Estenson was a member of an FBI SWAT team that laid siege to the 224-acre compound of The Covenant, the Sword, and the Arm of the Lord, a dangerous paramilitary training group imbued with Christian Identity beliefs. Estenson had been asked to join the team because the CSA's spiritual leader, James Ellison, had stockpiled a huge quantity of explosives at the site.

As the lawmen assembled in late April 1985, Ellison and 55 members of the CSA took refuge in one of the buildings located on the compound. A three-day standoff ensued that ended without incident after a series of tense negotiations. Ellison and four members of the terrorist group known as The Order, who were hiding on the site, surrendered to federal law enforcement officers and were arrested on weapons, explosives and racketeering charges.

Results of Examination:

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

Your office advised that on 12/4/95 a reporter for the Milwaukee Journal received a letter which is believed to have been sent by the subjects involved in captioned matters.

DOCUMENT EXAMINATION:

The typewriting on specimen Q61 most closely corresponds to Laboratory Standards for a Courier style of type having a horizontal spacing of ten characters to the inch. This style of type is available on numerous foreign and domestic typewriters.

Specimen Q62 was prepared using a photocopy process employed in photocopy machines and laser printers.

No indented writing or watermarks were observed on specimen Q61 or Q62.

The submitted evidence has been photographed for future reference.

DNA-PCR ANALYSIS:

There was insufficient DNA obtained from specimen Q61 for DNA analyses of the DQ alpha (DQA1), Polymarker (PM), D1S80 or amelogenin genetic loci.

DISPOSITION OF SPECIMENS:

These specimens will be returned to your office under separate cover via registered main or equivalent.
